June 2, 2017: Calgary Sightseeing

Heritage Park - Historical Village & Gasoline Alley Museum (Including Unlimited Rides)

Discover 'How the West was Won' at Canada's largest living history museum. Our costumed interpreters, authentic heritage buildings and unique transportation rides bring history to life. As you explore our village you will feel like you've stepped back in time — and are a guest among the townsfolk in an old western town. And don't miss the year-round Gasoline Alley Museum with its impressive collection of vintage vehicles and gasoline pumps. You are back in the old west — you are at Heritage Park.

WinSport - Family Combo

Experience the world's longest luge track with Skyline Luge; discover the inspirational stories of our Canadian sport heroes at Canada's Sports Hall of Fame; and play a scenic round of mini golf all for one low price!

June 3, 2017: Calgary Sightseeing

Calgary Tower

Officially opened on 30 June 1968, the "Tower" has become the City of Calgary's most famous and identifiable physical landmark. Ride to the top and experience the great sightseeing elevation pass of the entire city. A must do while in Calgary!

Visitors to the Observation Deck are able to virtually "step out into" space on the glass floor experience. Imagine standing 525 feet above the ground in the heart of Calgary and being able to look straight down and directly out in front of you into the heart of the city. The experience will be awe-inspiring and will challenge the emotions, but rest assured, the thrill will be worth it.

Calgary Zoo

From the splendor of our Canadian Wilds exhibit to the heart of Destination Africa, visit over 900 animals from around the world! Trek through a rain forest with lowland gorillas, safari over the African Savannah to watch hippos swimming, hike through Eurasia with the tigers or go up to the Rocky Mountains to find the grizzly bears. Complete your world tour with a trip through time in our Prehistoric Park or soothe your senses in nearly six acres of our beautiful Botanical Gardens.
